Our Appeal for Your Support

Giving is to Sacrifice as Sacrifice is to being Saved

The Go Ye Ministries Life Corporation (The G.Y.M.) is dedicated to community coaching and conflict resolution for families and neighborhoods in distress. Our mission is clear: To end violence and restore peace in public housing communities across Brooklyn, New York.

Our Goals

1. Provide alternatives to court involvement for young males aged 6–16.
2. Train local coaches from the community to strengthen families and neighborhoods.
3. Create positive pathways for the developmental needs of young males.
4. Attract investment and economic opportunities to build prosperity in the area.

Our Strategy

We are building a comprehensive curriculum that will:

- a. Transmit family values to restore responsibility and community pride.
- b. Disrupt gang influence by offering alternative pathways for youth.
- c. Address developmental needs of young males for successful societal integration.

Our communication incentive strategy engages the families, friends, and neighbors of gang members—those who most desire to see positive change. By building this network of accountability and support, we strengthen our mission: reduce violence and create alternatives for young men.

Meadows Ministry Update

The Brooklyn Assignment

New York City holds the most Seventh-day Adventist churches in America in one city—over 200, with 100+ in Brooklyn alone. My responsibilities: Education, Evangelism, and Evacuation. My assignment is Myrtle Avenue, Brooklyn—stretching from Lewis Avenue to Jay Street. Website: (mma-ministryofmyrtleave.life). My mission is largely a NYCHA (New York City Housing Authority) neighborhood.

- I lived at 1055 Myrtle Avenue for 25 years.
- Historically, Myrtle Avenue was the first paved street in Brooklyn. The 1886 NYC maps show it as the Cripple Bush Road stagecoach route to the East River.
- In 1888, the Myrtle Avenue Elevated Train was built. By the 1930s, construction of the Brooklyn Supreme Court cut Myrtle Avenue's East River connection and the west side of Myrtle Avenue was named Montague street.

Montague Street was used by George Washington as his escape route in the Battle of Brooklyn (August 27, 1776), America's first defense of freedom.

The Lord kept His promise—echoed in Revelation 13—where He assures both civil and religious liberty. Many were driven across the ocean to America, and here laid the foundations of civil and religious liberty which have been the bulwark and glory of this country. Rhode Island became the asylum of the oppressed, and it increased and prospered until its foundation principles—civil and religious liberty—became the corner-stones of the American Republic.

Had General Washington lost that first battle, it would have seemed like a failure attributed to God Himself. But providence made a way—through the Cripple Bush Road - Myrtle Avenue - Montague Street—escape route both freedom and faith was preserved.

The Lord's Direction

In a dream, the Lord showed me my office at 1368 Fulton Street with storage at 813 Bergen Street. (And yes—FYI, I still live in Florida!) God has sharpened my memory, strengthened my spiritual discernment, and given me spiritual power. I have authored three books:

1. The M.U.D. Program Manual and Training Workbook (once used as a training guide for Broward County Schools under O.I.C.)
2. Male Scaffolding – Change for the Cessation of Violence
3. Compelled to Go: More than a Command – It is a Description

I have also created three websites, including goyeministries.life live since 2021. Despite being a “two-finger typist” and a self-proclaimed “C student,” the Lord has blessed me with over 500 PowerPoints on every major Bible doctrine, plus dream-inspired presentations that answer the pressing questions of our time.

The Challenge of Failure

My greatest challenge—and most direct encounter with failure—has come during my work as a licensed vendor with Miami-Dade County, Broward County, Chicago Public Schools, and the New York City Department of Education. I volunteered for two (2) years to counsel family members adjudicated through the 11th District of Domestic Violence of Miami with Judges AM Pando and John Cohen, all of my cases closed without action. Along this journey, the Lord has given me multiple assignments. Yet my greatest obstacles—other than sin, Satan, and myself—have been impatience, disloyalty, and personal failure. Too many of us have assisted in each other's failures. No one celebrates failure.

But failure carries two companions: an emotion and a behavior.

- The emotion is anger.
- The behavior is violence.

Intervene at the point of anger, and you can prevent the outbreak of violence. For the male, failure often strikes in three areas:

1. Gender expectation
2. Family expectation
3. Community expectation

Consider this: how can a 12-year-old chess player defeat an adult master? The answer is simple—the rules. The rules do not change. Yet when it comes to defining manhood, we have shifted the definitions. Here is part of our suggestion:

- Man is who I am.
- Manhood is what I do.
- Maleness is where I come from.

The Final Tests

In these last days, God's people will face three tests:

The Lord will test your Faith – Perseverance – Confidence in His power to deliver.
Remember no one will be saved at the Second Coming. Only the Redeemed will be delivered

And I say Thank You

Thank You is to Receive as to Receive is to being Blessed.
